

COMPASSION sunday®

a call to HOPE

“TRULY I TELL YOU, WHATEVER YOU DID FOR ONE
OF THE LEAST OF THESE BROTHERS AND SISTERS OF MINE, YOU DID FOR ME.”

— Matthew 25:40, NIV

Scripture is clear. When we serve the poor, we serve God. When we love people living in poverty, we love his Son. When we speak up for the oppressed, we speak up for the kingdom of Christ.

Today, you're going to have an opportunity to do just that — to serve, love and speak up for “the least of these brothers and sisters.”

How? By choosing to sponsor a child living in poverty.

Today is Compassion Sunday — a day set apart to change the story for children living in poverty around the world. At the sponsorship table, you'll find photos of boys and girls who would love to be connected to someone like you — someone who loves, serves, speaks up freely.

You can follow Christ's call to hope and stand up for “the least of these.” And when you do — when you give sacrificially — your own heart will be filled with hope too. Will you answer the call?

Say “YES!” and sponsor a child today.
